IMPROVEMENT EAST WEBINAR

Home – Broken Attachments - King Simpson

WEDNESDAY, 25 MARCH 2026 - 12:15 – 13:00 - TEAMS

FOR THE EASTERN REGION BY THE EASTERN REGION

Join us for an inspiring webinar with King Simpson — storyteller, filmmaker, and social values campaigner.

King's work focuses on lived experience and systemic accountability, drawing on his own journey as a care leaver. Through film, he creates powerful connections between policy and real-life stories, opening up honest conversations about foster care, belonging, and long-term impact.

During the webinar he will show his short film Home as a catalyst for meaningful discussion, prompting reflection on attachment, the care system, and the realities faced by care-experienced people. King will lead trauma-informed conversations that champion empathy, active listening, and practical insights shaped by lived experience.
